

Christmas Caroling 2009

22 December 2008

Objectives:

- To let students know how important it is to care for others specially during Christmas time.
- To extend the message of love between people. How students should take care of people younger than them.